

Historic achievement

JOSEPH O'Reilly of Kings Langley has won the Mayoral History Prize set up by Blacktown Council to promote greater understanding of the city's heritage.

Joseph, a year 10 student at Castle Hill High School, was awarded the prize for his entry Kings Langley Hockey Club: a personal story.

Joseph's work was recommended for inclusion in Mitchell Library's historical records.

Copies will also be available in the Blacktown Library's local studies collection.

Joseph received $1000 and a certificate for his efforts and his school was awarded $500.
